The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentlewoman from New Mexico (Ms. HAALAND) and the gentlewoman from Wyoming (Ms. CHE-NEY) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from New Mexico.

GENERAL LEAVE

Ms. HAALAND. I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on the measure under consideration.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from New Mexico?

There was no objection.

Ms. HAALAND. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

I rise in support of H.R. 3465, the Fallen Journalists Memorial Act introduced by my fellow committee member, Representative Napolitano.

This bill would authorize a memorial honor the reporters. photojournalists, producers, editors, and countless others who have lost their lives while performing their jobs.

Every day, journalists at home and abroad place their lives at risk in pursuit of the truth and in defense of our First Amendment right to a free and independent press.

In 2018 alone, nearly 80 journalists from around the world were murdered in their line of work. Yet, with the closure of the Newseum earlier this year, there is no memorial that commemorates those who have paid the ultimate sacrifice while fulfilling their duty to deliver the news.

The memorial envisioned in H.R. 3465 would be a fitting tribute to their sacrifices and an affirmation of our Nation's commitment to a free press.

I strongly urge my colleagues to support this bill, and I reserve the balance of my time.

Ms. CHENEY. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, H.R. 3465 would authorize the Fallen Journalists Memorial Foundation to establish a commemorative work on Federal land to commemorate the sacrifices made by journalists for a free and independent press.

This bill requires the Fallen Journalists Memorial Foundation to follow the standard legal framework established by the Commemorative Works Act for the placement of commemorative works on Federal land in the District of Columbia.

According to the Committee to Protect Journalists, 1,382 journalists have been killed since 1992 as a result of their work in combat or crossfire or while carrying out dangerous assignments. Hundreds more each year are attacked, imprisoned, and tortured.

Threats and attacks against journalists are not new, but today journalists face an increasingly hostile environment. H.R. 3465 was introduced 1 year after the deadliest attack on journalists in modern United States history when five Capital Gazette employees were killed in their Annapolis, Maryland, newsroom on June 28, 2018.

Madam Speaker, this memorial will stand as an important reminder of the First Amendment and the vital importance that a free and independent press plays in defending all of our rights.

I urge adoption of the measure, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Ms. HAALAND. Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support the legislation, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentlewoman from New Mexico (Ms. HAALAND) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 3465, as amended.

The question was taken; and (twothirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentlewoman from New Mexico (Ms. HAALAND) and the gentlewoman from Wyoming (Ms. CHENEY) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from New Mexico.

GENERAL LEAVE

Ms. HAALAND. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on the measure under consideration.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from New Mexico?

There was no objection.

Ms. HAALAND. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, H.R. 4957, introduced by Representative RUBEN GALLEGO from Arizona, amends and reauthorizes several programs within the Indian Child Protection and Family Violence Prevention Act in order to improve the prevention, investigation, treatment, and prosecution of family violence, child abuse, and child neglect involving Native American children and families.

There is an enormous need for family violence prevention and treatment resources in Tribal communities. Native children experience child abuse and neglect at an elevated rate, which leads many to require special education services, to be more likely to be involved in the juvenile and criminal justice systems, and to have long-term mental health needs.

The passage of H.R. 4957 will create technical assistance programs in the Bureau of Indian Affairs, allow for urban Indian organizations to partner with Tribal governments, and ensure culturally competent care.

I thank subcommittee Chair RUBEN GALLEGO for introducing and championing this vitally important legislation, and I urge my colleagues to support H.R. 4957.

Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Ms. CHENEY. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, H.R. 4957 reauthorized three programs that are intended to prevent cases within our Indian communities of child abuse, neglect, family violence, and trauma, as well as providing treatment for victims of Indian child sexual abuse.

The authorization for appropriations for these three programs expired in 1997. This bill also makes important underlying technical changes to the statute, requiring agency reports on grant awards.

Madam Speaker, while the Indian Child Protection and Family Violence Prevention Act is one of the only federally dedicated child abuse prevention and victim treatment programs providing funding for Tribal governments, Congress has only appropriated approximately $5 million for this program.

I am grateful to the sponsor for bringing our attention to this important issue as we all work together to end abuse, neglect, and violence across our States and on our reservations.

Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Ms. HAALAND. Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support the legislation, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentlewoman from New Mexico (Ms. HAALAND) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 4957, as amended

The question was taken; and (twothirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.
